SALE CONSIGNMENT INFORMATION

MN BEEF EXPO SALE SHOW

- Eberspacher Enterprises will manage and clerk all sales, as well as prepare the catalog/program.
- All exhibitors conducting a private sale of animals will be charged $200 per animal.
- The show will be Saturday, October 22 at 8 am.
- Awards for class winners.
- All sale animals are eligible to show for $6,750 in cash awards!
- All cattle selling must have a health certificate!
No exceptions.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: All cattle will be inspected by the official veterinarian the opening day of the exhibition. The official veterinarian will order the immediate removal to a quarantine facility or removal from the exhibition premises of any animal with symptoms of infectious or communicable diseases. Animals placed in a quarantine facility must remain there until removed from the exhibition premises. They MAY NOT enter a show ring; animals affected by these diseases cannot be exhibited. A statement from a veterinarian that an animal is being treated for these diseases is NOT acceptable. Animals known by the exhibitor to have an infectious, communicable disease or to have been exposed to an infectious, communicable disease, or to be from a quarantined herd may not be entered in an exhibition. Any animal showing evidence of any disease, abscesses, or any open contagious lesions will not be allowed to exhibit or show and will be subject to isolation or expulsion depending on the nature and seriousness of the disease, abscess or lesion in question. If illness of any nature is suspected in any animal, said animal is subject to examination by the State Veterinarian and owner or exhibitor of said animal must abide by the decision of this veterinarian. Animals with warts or ringworm MAY NOT be shown.

- A. All females must be calffood vaccinated.
- B. All bred females must have accurate breeding dates and any female represented and sold as "safe in calf" must have a veterinarian's certificate stating that she has been examined within 30 days of sale date. Registration numbers on AI sires and pasture exposure bulls are required on the registration paper.

1. Cattle from Minnesota
 - a. No specific tests required (as of July 1, 2012).
 - b. Must have proper identification as outlined in the USDA ADT rule noted above (as of Mar. 11, 2013).
2. Cattle from outside Minnesota.
 - a. Must meet the Minnesota Importation requirements. See <http://mn.gov/bah/imports.html>, or call the Minnesota Board of Animal Health at (651) 296-2942
 - b. Must have proper identification as outlined in the USDA ADTY rule noted above (as of Mar. 11, 2013).
 - c. Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) must list the Minnesota State Fair as consignee and will be accepted if examination and tests are conducted within 90 days prior to the exhibition. Health papers must include federal I.D. numbers.
 - d. Cattle from outside Minnesota must meet the importation requirements of their state of origin if they are returning.

Please consult with the Minnesota Beef Expo website for the most up-to-date information regarding the TB regulations.

For Junior Show information, see page 6-7.

Forms of acceptable animal identification:

1. Canadian Cattle identification Agency (CCIA) Radio Frequency Identification Device (RFID) tag [15 digit number starting with 124]
2. USDA AIN RFID tag [15 digit number starting with 840]
3. USDA AIN Visual tag [15 digit number starting with 840]
4. USDA National Uniform Ear tagging System (NUES) tags [Brucellosis (Bang's) orange vaccination tags, "Brite" (metal or plastic) tags]

HALTER BREAKING - All cattle must be halter broke. The Minnesota Beef Expo committee reserves the right prior to the sale to cull any animal that is deemed unmanageable or potentially detrimental to the sale.

PROCESSING AND TAGGING - All sale cattle will be processed and tagged on Friday, October 20, from 8 am to noon. Registration papers must be in the hands of sale manager on Friday prior to the sale.

FEES (includes bedding & Jr. show fee) - $240 sale entry per head. Tie-outs are an additional $20 per head.

Above $240 entry fee applies toward sale expense, bedding, and entry fee in the show. Entry fee will be retained to help defray expenses if your animal is a no-show. Same sale commission applies to no sales.

CATALOG INFORMATION AND PHOTOS - All catalog material is due September 10, 2016. Photos are very important! High quality photos will be used in the catalog, if you need assistance in taking photos, please contact Val (612) 805-7405 or Kelly (406) 599-2395.
